

T over SAMO

Lacing up my shoes
Goin' for a little cruise
Heading for the corridor
Washington and Montana

Double wide sidewalk,
Room for you and your dog
Coming the other way, don't be a hog
Coming the other way, don't be a hog

90403

Passing by the coffee shop
Familiar faces they stop
We comment on the weather, and then say
"Farewell, enjoy your day"

Heading to the palisades
As we near the end of the day
Sunset kisses the sea, what a dream
Sun and the sea just like me and my baby

If I could pick a pin and put it anywhere on a map
There's no place I'd rather pick than where I'm at Unless that is not where you were
At which point I'd choose that

No matter, wherever you are, I choose that
You I choose
You over skies so blue
